

Suzie admiring the lovely silver bracelet Cas made for her

Last week we sadly said goodbye to Suzie, who is leaving to have her first baby next month. Suzie has been with us for six years, coming first on a three-month contract to photograph the Loans Collection at Burymead. Suzie was such a good addition to the team we managed to keep renewing her contract, and before too long she became Assistant Curator at Hitchin. We are all very sorry to see her go, and can't wait for her to come back to test the Family Friendliness of the new museum.
